

Jon Thompson Lecture Series

This lecture will be presented by Dr. Alison Hearn

Thursday February 4, 2021

7 pm via Zoom

You are invited to join AUNBT for the fourth installment in the Jon Thompson Lecture Series:

"Who's zooming who? Edtech, surveillance, equity, and academic freedom in the 'outsourced' university"

Presented by Dr. Alison Hearn, Associate Professor in the Faculty of Information and Media Studies, at the University of Western Ontario. Her research focuses on the intersections of digital media, self-presentation, and emerging forms of labour, and on the university as a cultural and political site. She is a past president of the University of Western Ontario Faculty Association (UWOFA), and the current chair of the Academic Freedom and Tenure Committee of the Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT). She is co-author, with Liora Salter, of Outside the Lines: Issues in Interdisciplinary Research.

The lecture takes place on February 4, 2021 at 7 p.m. (AST) The session will be open at 6:45 and we ask that you join at this time.
